

Contents

Introduction .....	v
Nouns .....	1
Verbs .....	8
Nouns and Verbs .....	15
Analogies .....	18
Adjectives .....	22
Animals .....	24
Science .....	26
Time of Day .....	29
Music .....	30
Maps .....	32
The Body .....	33
Sports .....	34
People .....	35
Places .....	36
Morphemes and Suffixes .....	37
Prefixes .....	41
More Suffixes .....	47
More Morphemes .....	51
Synonyms .....	52
Homophones .....	54
Words with Multiple Meanings .....	58
Answer Key .....	66
English Translation of Spanish Directions .....	75
Index .....	83

Nouns * Sustantivos

Nouns are persons, places, things or creatures. Match the noun with its picture. Then write a p if the noun is a person, a pl if it's a place, a th if it's a thing and a cr if it's a creature. La primera se hizo como ejemplo.

umpire	stew	boy	canteen	tadpole	pews
napkin	coins	boxer	mouse	wood	spear

1. tadpole (cr)

2.

3.

4.

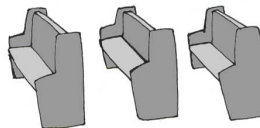

5.

6.

7.

8.

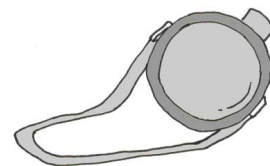

9.

10.

11.

12.

Analogies * Analogías

Where would you find? * ¿Dónde encontrarías?

Una analogía es una comparación entre dos cosas. Use las siguientes palabras para llenar las analogías. La primera se hizo como ejemplo.

barn	court	den	stage	church
purse	pants	classroom	tree	kingdom
ring	ocean	book	field	closet

Relating Factor

1.

... is a place for ...

2.

... is a place for ...

3.

... is a place for ...

4.

... is a place for ...

5.

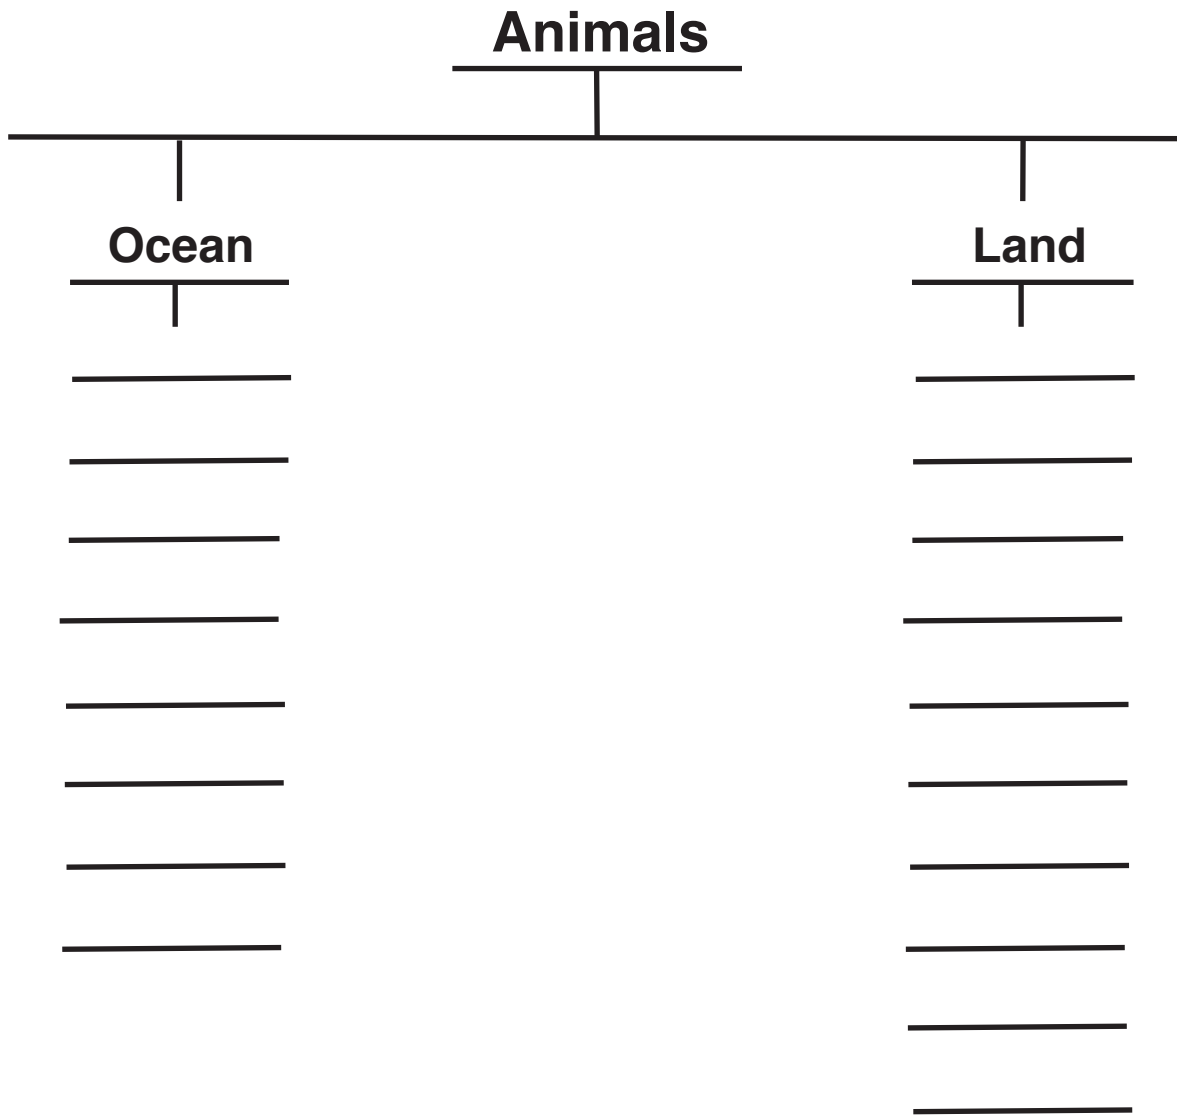

... is a place for...

Animals * Animales

Usa las siguientes palabras para llenar el árbol de clasificación sobre los animales que viven en el océano y los animales que viven en tierra.

gazelles	mice	kangaroos	stingrays	dolphins	wildebeests
shrimp	hares	hyenas	squids	octopuses	squirrels
zebras	fawns	sharks	bears	whales	jellyfish

Usa las palabras de arriba para contestar las preguntas.

1. Which animals are young deer? _____
2. Which animals have black and white stripes? _____
3. Which animals have four pairs of arms? _____
4. Which two animals are mammals and live entirely in the ocean? _____

English Translation of Spanish Directions

Page 12

Choose words from below to go with each verb in the inner squares. Write four words in the outer square. Use each word once. Then write a sentence using your words. You may add extra words that are not in the outer square to your sentence. The first one has been done for you.

Page 13

Choose words from below to go with each verb in the inner squares. Write four words in the outer square. Use each word once. Then write a sentence using your words. You may add extra words that are not in the outer square to your sentence.

Page 14

Use the verbs below to fill in the blanks. Add s, es, ed, or ing if necessary.

Page 15

Many words have multiple meanings and some can be used as nouns or verbs. The words below can be used as both. Remember, nouns are people, places, things or creatures. A verb is an action word. Nouns are used as subjects and objects. Every sentence must have a subject and a verb.

Use the words below to write your own sentences. First, write a sentence using the given word as a noun and then write a sentence using the given word as a verb. Add s, ed, or ing if necessary. Use a dictionary, if you need help.

Page 16

Many words have multiple meanings and some can be used as nouns or verbs. The words below can be used as both. Remember, nouns are people, places, things or creatures. A verb is an action word. Nouns are used as subjects and objects. Every sentence must have a subject and a verb.

Use the words below to write your own sentences. First, write a sentence using the given word as a noun and then write a sentence using the given word as a verb. Add s, ed, or ing if necessary. Use a dictionary, if you need help.

Page 17

Many words have multiple meanings and some can be used as nouns or verbs. The words below can be used as both. Remember, nouns are people, places, things or creatures. A verb is an action word. Nouns are used as subjects and objects. Every sentence must have a subject and a verb.

Use the words below to write your own sentences. First, write a sentence using the given word as a noun and then write a sentence using the given word as a verb. Add s, ed, or ing if necessary. Use a dictionary, if you need help.

Page 18

An analogy is a comparison between two things. Use the words below to fill in the analogies. The first one has been done for you.